Our previous project: Interprofessional education and collaborative practice

Article is ready for submission:

Title:

Interprofessional education: strengths, weaknesses, barriers, and enablers according to academics and National Dental Associations in the European Regional Organisation

Running topic: The transition from a dental student to a practitioner - is there anything missing?

The aim of the study:

- to understand the National Dental Associations' perception about the need for immediate vocational training of dental graduates.
- Is there anything missing for them to start a self-reliant dental practice?

Thank you for cooperation!
